Johnny Henry Ligon, 83, of Brunswick, Georgia, died Thursday, Dec. 1, 2022, at Hospice of the Golden Isles. Born on Aug. 9, 1939, to the late John and Ella Belle Ligon in Savannah, Georgia, he married Joan Dill Ligon on Sept. 24, 1960, while serving over six years in the Air National Guard. He worked for Brunswick Salt & Material/Morton Salt for 18 years and was the owner of Woodland Mobile Home Park. Johnny's hobbies include riding his Harley Davidson, driving his convertible mustang, or cheering on the Georgia Bulldogs. He was also a member of First Baptist Church in Brunswick.

Johnny is preceded in death by his parents; a brother-in-law, Douglas LaRoche; and a nephew, Warren LaRoche.

Survivors include his wife, Joan Ligon; daughters, Amy Morris (Doug), Ann Owens (Joe) and Judy Thomas; grandchildren, Lindsey Cravey (Nathan), Lauren Hulett (Casey), Leslie Rumbaugh (Josh), Justin Davis (Caitlin), Brandon Thomas and Christin Thomas; six great-grandchildren; a sister, Annette LaRoche; and two nieces, Michelle Dye and Denise Baggett.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to a special friend, Diann Burns.

A memorial service will be held at 11 a.m. aturday, Dec. 10, 2022, at Brunswick Memorial Park Funeral Home, with the Rev. Bill Ligon and the Rev. Mark Linton officiating. The family welcomes guests to wear red and black for the Georgia Bulldogs.

In lieu of flowers, remembrances may be made to Hospice of the Golden Isles.

Brunswick Memorial Park Funeral Home is honored to handle the arrangements.
