

Reported by letter dated Frederica, April 19, 1778, from Colonel Samuel Elbert to Major General Robert Howe, Continental Army Commander of the Southern Department.

"...You must imagine what my feelings were, to see our three little men of war going on to the attack of these three vessels who have spread terror on our coast, and who were drawn up in order of battle; but the weight of our metal soon damped the courage of these heroes, who soon took to their boats; and, as many as could, abandoned the vessels with everything on board, of which we immediately took possession. What is extraordinary, we have not one man hurt..."
