

- 1 James Gould b. 1772 d. 3-Sep-1852 [CC A17-K]
 m. Mary Jane Harris m. 1802 d. 1817
 Won contact from US Government to build first light house on St. Simons 1807-1810.
 Bought St. Clair tract about 1812 which had belonged to Major Samuel Wright. Named 'Rose Hill' tract by family and later "Rosemount" by daughter Mary. House was located in area on Dunbar creek which is now called the Enclave at Sea Palms.
 Later purchased "Blackbanks" which had belonged to loyalist James Graham. Blackbanks was later deeded to his son James F. Gould. St. Clair plantation was left to daughter Mary Gould. Daughter Jamie lived in Baltimore.
- 2 Mary E. H. Gould b. 1809 d. 9-Apr-1872 [CC A17-L]
 The St. Clair Plantation was left mainly to Mary Gould, who proved to be as capable at managing the cotton fields as she was at growing roses and managing household affairs at Rosemount. She was so devoted to the plantation that it was difficult for Horace and Deborah to persuade her to leave when the island was evacuated in 1861. After the house was burned in the Civil War she moved to New York.
- 2 James F. Gould b. _____
 Became the owner of Blackbanks and ran the cotton plantation until the civil war. After the war he did not return to St. Simons.
- 2 Horace Bunch Gould b. 12-Aug-1812 d. 7-Apr-1884 [CC A17-U]
 m. Deborah Abbott m. 1845 b. 31-Jan-1829 d. 26-Sep-1906 [CC A17-T]
 [daughter of Richard Abbott and Agnes]
 When civil war was over he found the house "Rosemont" burned and in possession of a group of freemen. He managed to buy back Blackbanks which he cultivated again. Mary Gould went to live in New York. Church seivces were held at Blackbanks before Christ Church was rebuilt by Anson Dodge. Horace Bunch Gould's decendants mostly remained on SSI for several generations as the property was divided many times.

 Jacqueline:
 Jacqueline:
 Jackie graduated from Glynn Academy in 1937 and attended Wesleyan College in Macon. She was one of the original members of the Pirates Club. In 1939, she married Nathaniel Ingraham Hasell and was able to celebrate a 50th anniversary before his death. This relationship was the most important thing in the world to her. Together they had many adventures. Buddy (Nathaniel) taught in the Army Air Corps during World War II in Douglas. After the war, Buddy was a captain for Eastern Airlines and taught Jackie to fly small aircraft. They crossed the country together many times. He also taught her to ride horses, drive a tractor and pilot boats. After his retirement they started the guest program at the Lodge on Little St. Simons Island where Buddy's step-father Douglas Taylor had been caretaker for 65 years. Jackie Hasell was a wonderful gardener and a member of the Cassina Garden Club and the Civinettes. She served on the Altar Guild at Christ Church and was in the prayer group, Daughters of the King. One of her loves was preparing the flowers for the services. In the summer, Jackie could often be found floating in the ocean on inner tubes with her dog and her beloved sister, Rosa.
